VIRGINIA CAVALCADE

VOLUME SEVENTEEN
Summer 1967 - Spring 1968

Published Quarterly
by the
Virginia State Library
Richmond, Virginia

CONTENTS OF VOLUME SEVENTEEN

Number One, Summer 1967

The Journals of Captain Leonard S. Tawes ..... Robert H. Burgess 4
A retired schooner captain who wrote his reminiscences left a valuable record of Chesapeake Bay history.

Virginian, Southerner, American ..... F. N. Boney 11
John Letcher, Virginia's Civil War governor was a moderate in a revolutionary era.

Virginia Frontier Rifles 20
Virginia gunsmiths produced the fine rifles and muskets with which militiamen defeated the British regulars.

Francis Makemie, Disturbing Dissenter ..... Walter L. Jones 27
A Virginia planter, merchant, and minister from Ireland was the founder of organized Presbyterianism in America.

Edmund Ruffin, Editor and Publisher ..... Sterling P. Anderson, Jr. 32
Virginia's pioneer scientific farmer entered the printing business to spread his agricultural ideas.

A Virginia Indian family in 1860 ..... Howard A. MacCord, Sr. 39
The remains of a small frame house yield evidence of conditions during a cultural upheaval.

Murder in the Courtroom ..... M. Clifford Harrison 43
Sensational newspaper accounts distorted the Hillsville massacre.

Number Two, Autumn 1967

Westover Restored ..... Thomas G. Garner, Jr. 5
The two churches of Westover Parish survived abandonment, fire and war.

Virginia Iron Furnaces of the Confederacy ..... John D. Capron 10
The faltering charcoal iron industry was revived during a war emergency and helped Virginia rebuild for peace.

Richmond City Halls ..... Edward F. Heite 19
The seats of municipal government often have been a source of controversy.

Dr. Goodwin's Antique ..... Marguerite Gignilliat 23
The Ludwell town house had always been important in Williamsburg's affairs.

The First Reconnaissance of the James ..... Philip L. Barbour 35
The gentlemen in Christopher Newport's exploring party were hampered by dissension and language barriers, but they left detailed records of their discoveries.

Evenings of Song ..... Merle Tyler 42
Amateur musical societies drew large audiences in postwar Richmond.

Number Three, Winter 1968

Musters at Poplar Lawn ..... Lee A. Wallace, Jr. 4
Before the Civil War, Petersburg militiamen used this city park as a training ground.

Painter of the Old Dominion ..... Edward F. Heite 11
John Gadsby Chapman preferred to live in Italy, but his most famous works concerned Virginia.

Chapman Paints the Washington Legend ..... a portfolio 20

Courthouses of Henrico and Chesterfield ..... William H. Gaines, Jr. 30
The twin colonial buildings have been replaced, but the functions of local government continue.

Courthouses of Cumberland and Powhatan Counties ..... William H. Gaines, Jr. 38
Effingham and Scottville still are county seats, but the names of these villages have been changed.

Captain Newport Meets Opechancanough ..... Philip L. Barbour 42
After a visit with Powhatan's son, the English explorers saw the falls, and later encountered a hostile reception.

Number Four, Spring 1968

Courthouses of Goochland and Albemarle Counties ..... William H. Gaines, Jr. 5
Gooch and Albemarle both were governors of Virginia; only one of them actually served in Williamsburg.

Redcoats, Yankees, and Pie Plates ..... Edward F. Heite 12
Conquering armies and other misfortunes have destroyed much of Virginia's heritage.

George Frederick Holmes ..... E. T. Crowson 19
Facility with words, and a brilliant wit made Holmes a leader in Southern education.

An English View of Virginia ..... Edward F. Heite 30
At the beginning of the Seven Years War, a London publisher offered his readers the latest map of the disputed territory.

Buckingham and Appomattox Courthouses ..... William H. Gaines, Jr. 32
Fires destroyed both Jefferson's courthouse and the one which witnessed Lee's surrender.

Virginia Twists the Lion's Tail ..... Edward F. Heite 41
In 1841 Virginia presented swords to the heroes of the war with Britain.

)

8

2

5

12

19

30

32

41